Release of Waiver and Liability Form

By completing and submitting this volunteer waiver, I agree to release and hold harmless Mission First, its employees, agents and volunteers, from, but not limited to, all illness, harm, loss, accidents, personal injury or property damage suffered by myself or said members of my group as a result of involvement with Mission First, its employees or contracted agents and its related entities and all associated programs. I do this on behalf of myself and any of my heirs, estates, personal representatives and assignees.

By completing this volunteer waiver, I give my permission to Mission First to use any photographic images which may be taken of me, and used with or without accompanying, descriptive narrative. These images may be used in promotional materials, including, but not limited to, letters, brochures, newsletters, video clips, Facebook postings or other online social media venues and on the Mission First website. I understand that such materials are developed for public relations and/or fundraising purposes to support the food and clothing services Mission First provides. I freely waive any payment of fees for use of such images and narrative, and Mission First and any or its component parts or employees, free and harmless concerning the use of such images and narrative.

I have carefully read this agreement, understand its contents, and agree to be bound by its terms.
